

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: July 9, 2026

This Privacy Policy describes how Ferguson Farms, Inc. ("we," "us," or "our") collects, uses, and protects your information when you use our services and website.

Information We Collect

We may collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us, including but not limited to your name, email address, phone number, mailing address, and payment information. We may also collect information automatically when you use our website, such as IP address, browser type, and access times.

How We Use Your Information

We may use the information we collect for various purposes, including:

- To provide, operate, and maintain our services;
- To improve our website, products, and services;
- To communicate with you;
- To process your transactions;
- To send you informational and marketing communications;
- To comply with legal requirements.

Sharing Your Information

We do not sell or rent your personal information. We may share your information with third-party service providers who assist us in operating our business and services, as well as when required by law or to protect our rights.

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We may use cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience on our website. You can choose to disable cookies through your browser settings.

Security

We implement reasonable security measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure.

Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of such websites.

Children's Privacy

Our services are not directed to individuals under the age of 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13.

Your Choices

You may opt out of receiving marketing communications from us at any time by following the unsubscribe instructions in our emails or by contacting us at amanda@fergusonfarms.com.
